4 COMPOSITION

Denison uses its best endeavours to comply with relevant corporate governance principles, including the ASX Corporate Governance Council Principles and Recommendations 4th ed or later editions, regarding the composition of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee. Denison recognises however that strict compliance may not always be practical or practicable, and it may be necessary to depart from those principles from time to time dependent on the composition of the Board available at that time.

- (a) The members of the Committee are appointed by the Board and, where practical and practicable, comprise:
 - (i) at least three (3) Directors;
 - (ii) all non-executive Directors, a majority of whom are independent; and
 - (iii) an independent non-executive director Chair.
- (b) A member who wishes to retire or resign from the Committee must notify the Board in writing, giving not less than two (2) months' notice.
- (c) The Board may add to or replace Committee members. Other personnel of the Company and external advisers may attend meetings of the Committee at the invitation of the Committee Chair on an as needs basis.

5 MEETINGS AND ACCESS

- (a) The Committee should meet as often as required but not less than twice a year.
- (b) Additional meetings of the Committee may be called, as determined by the Committee Chair who must take into account any request from the Board, any Committee member, the Managing Director/CEO, the Chief Financial Officer⁴ or the Chief Operations Officer.
- (c) Meetings:
 - (i) may be held in person, using virtual meeting technology or a mix of both, provided that all persons participating in the meeting can participate and hear each other;
 - (ii) may be convened by any Committee member regarding the Committee's duties;
 - (iii) are convened by notice of meeting, confirming the venue, electronic facilities, date and time and enclosing an agenda of items to be discussed, to be, other than under exceptional circumstances, forwarded to each member of the

- (iv) are subject to a quorum of at least two (2) Committee members (including at least one (1) independent non-executive director), present physically or by virtual meeting technology; and
 - (v) are presided by the Committee Chair. If at any meeting the Chair is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of the other independent members to be the Chair of the meeting.
- (d) The Committee may invite any Executive Director, executive, other staff member or external advisers to attend all or part of a Committee meeting.
 - (e) The Committee has a right to access management and to seek additional information and explanations where it considers it appropriate.
 - (f) The Committee has access to the General Counsel and the Company Secretary for advice and may seek independent advice from external advisers to enable it to properly carry out its functions and meet its objectives.
 - (g) The proceedings of all Committee meetings are minuted by the Company Secretary or nominee. The minutes are confirmed and signed by the Chair of the meeting within one (1) month and circulated to all members of the Committee. All minutes are available for inspection by any Director. A written resolution signed or approved by a majority of the members of the Committee is as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Committee duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents each signed by one or more members. The expressions "in writing" and signed include approvals by any electronic communication.
 - (h) In discharging their responsibilities, the members have a duty to act in the best interests of the Company as a whole, irrespective of personal, professional, commercial or other interests, loyalties or affiliations.
 - (i) Any member is required to abstain from voting, approving or making a recommendation on any resolutions of the Committee in which such member has a conflict of interest in the subject matter under consideration or on any resolutions pertaining to a Related Employee.
 - (j) Matters will generally be decided by consensus or, if consensus cannot be reached, by a majority of votes from the members present. Where votes are equal, the Committee Chair has a casting vote.
 - (k) The Committee has the right to obtain information, interview management or carry out any task that may be necessary to enable it to properly to carry out its role and meet its objectives.

6 REPORTING

- (a) The Committee Chair will report to the Board following each meeting of the Committee regarding any significant matters relevant to its role and responsibilities under this Charter, Committee advice and recommendations identifying any action needed and/to be undertaken.
- (b) Minutes of meetings will be included in the papers for the next full Committee meeting and will be provided to the Board at the next Board meeting, for the information of the Board.

7 REMUNERATION

Having regard to the functions performed by members of the Committee in addition to their functions as Directors and pursuant to the specific power conferred upon the Board by the Constitution of the Company, members of the Committee may be paid such special remuneration in respect of their appointment as determined by the Board.

8 REVIEW

- (a) The Committee will, at least once a year, review this charter of the Committee to review its purpose and responsibilities and assess its adequacy and effectiveness.
- (b) This Charter is authorised by the Board and may only be amended with its approval.
- (c) This Charter is available on the Company's website.
